Truth About Writing

- ◆ This article explains some facts about the real writers.

TRUTH ABOUT WRITING

Our parents are the reason why we're here & that is a fact, but shall we hate them if they disagree us on something?

I know that teenagers are always on the change, they love somebody now & they hate/forget him (that person) the other day, they want something now & they do so much to have it & when they get it they say: "is that?" Well, that is a fact that nobody can deny. We're all the same & we all get these moments & we all become teenagers in on period of life & do crazy things, but shall we keep doing them or stop right there & try to regenerate ourselves to be better people with a better mind & a lot of knowledge?

One of the most common issue that teenagers have is that they hate they're own parents at some point in life, for a few worthless reasons.

Well, hate is what they describe it the most, but did hate really come that far for teenagers or is it just another crazy said by them? I believe that everybody love they're mom & dad & they can't hate them for a few, simple reasons & hate can't really kill all that love between family for some silly reasons, it's just that we get upset when we get a "NO" from our parents & we don't think too much how to describe our anger or how to describe our feels that moment so we go on the name of HATE, that 4 letters word can actually break through a whole family, how? Well, we all know if you hate/ or think you hate someone (as I can say), you go away from him & you try to be away from that person & like that we could really convert a wrong a description to a real hate!!

Our parents, they're the reason why we're here. Do they deserve this hate? For a singer, for an actor, or alcohol & drugs? <--- (Examples only) I don't think they do, after all, your mom & dad married & got even more committed since the first moment they got you & they're doing their best to make you live a better life. Hatred is a very mean-full word, nobody deserves to be hated, especially for some silly reasons.

You know, God (Allah) has never said in Holy Qur'an that he hates anybody... He never used the word HATE... He only used the describe of "Allah doesn't like those kind of people... Who act like..." He's the one true God & he loves all of his creations, especially the once who obey him more.

My advice for you: regenerate yourself in the circle of life, now is better than later, think about the reasons of why you hate your parents & try to solve them.

This is from the knowledge of Islam, if you need any help or if you have any questions, please ask it to us here: <http://eDialogue.org>

Islam is not only a religion it's a life style, it's even far more than that... It's a key to haven & a way to live a better life, it's far more away from hatred, killing, booming & harming anybody/ anyone.

"We are not insane, we only have some mentally pollutions."

You are everything in this world, you complete the world, you complete me, myself, you complete your own self and you complete them, all of them! but no matter how much we work hard to make something perfect- we will fail, why? Cause only God (Allah) is perfect.

Today's subject is the yesterdays and the day before and the futures! Not to mention, if there was no today, then surly- there will be no tomorrow and every passing moment is another chance to change, so, lets regenerate ourselves in the circle of life.

Enough talking in mysteries... It's - LOVE & LIFE (my subject)

Look at yourself,

Sad like the moon,

And left-ed all by your own,

After you were...

Sold, as a rock,

And high like the sky,

Now you are...

Broken and smoke-n,

Life if you are so high.

We meet different kind of people, we fall in love and we get into tons of relationships, sometimes it works and contentious to the end of life and sometimes it screw up, this depends on many and many of things that I can't come up telling you about because it's not so specific & clear.

If you have been left any time soon and you got a real heart broken then you have to know something, what happened is done and over and you can't take the time back, they're gone, they played you and left, they took what they wanted and they simply took off and left, all what you can do, now is building a new future with a totally new plans for yourself, because you play a huge part in this life, your some kind of running the world and you can't just let everybody go and be desperate and lonely or as I like to say (encrypted).

Cause you're like a moon and everybody else is just like any start in the sky.

So, you're the moon, the person who left you is the sun and all other people are the stars, the sun shine much more than the moon and the stars and that's how you looked at the person who left you- you saw him as if he is the best in the world- not to know that if you get closer to sun you can get burned and turned into billions of prices. The moon is beautiful just like you are...

Not to mention that you can make yourself forget the person who you fell in love and got left by, for a bit of time, just like when the sun set and moon comes up at night to shine and glow our world. (What I meant from, when the sun set down... Is when you forget what happened for a bit of time and think about other positive stuff in life). It's simple, easy and it's a matter of time, when you find something that may cheer you up, hold it on and don't let it go...

Justin Timberlake

- ◆ This article is about the one and the only-Justin Timberlake. It describes the way he sings.

Justin Timberlake is one of the best American singers, he breaks down the singing rules to come up with a totally new ones, in a positive way, he's creating his own kind of music.

Justin believes in music instruments much as he believes in his voice, his lyrics & his fans. He chooses the best effects, mixed with the best music and he sings a story in each single of his own, he writes the lyrics and sing them and then he let his music instruments to complete the message, the story.

Justin holds a great voice, with an open mind to accept and give all what it takes out there on the stage to make his fans smile & enjoy they're life at every moment. Justin likes to sing quietly & he nicely go on so he can give much more effect on his fans, Justin sings about life, love and breaking down emotions.

Justin shows us a few things about music, witch is- it's not only meant to dance on, but no, it's meant also to express yourself out and to share love to the world, music about telling a story in life and music has much more handy uses.

Just by looking at JT while he is performing music on the stage, you notice that he isn't here for money, fame, he is here to present a himself, to express himself, he is here to complete his story to the end, see... Each album of his albums has a great stories, different in the lyrics and the music but they all have one subject, which is- LOVE.

Justin had released 3 albums so far:

- 1- Justified (2002)
- 2- FutureSex/LoveSounds (2006)
- 3 The 20/20 Experience (2013)

Fake Hatred Between Teens/Adults And Parents

FAKE HATRED

Our parents are the reason why we're here & that is a fact, but shall we hate them if they disagree us on something?

Bad Alcohol

- ◆ I really think you should stop drinking alcohol after reading this article. I'm here to help you if you need any help to quit alcohol. Contact me anytime: akirotimberlake@gmail.com

Hello people, this Article respects all opinions and it's written to help you with your life style.

Alcohol is harmful for your mind & your body and I think you already know that but what you don't know is that there are too many ways to quit it & too many things to do instead of drinking. no to mention the huge number of people who quit drinking every single day and for ever without coming back. Do you want to quit? Do you want to be a classier person than the person who you are now? Do you want to be healthy? Do you want strut while walking just because you're taking care of yourself in a way that makes you a better person? Yes? No? Continue reading, please...

Drinking takes your mind, gives you more than a personality and breaks through your real/ official personality. It changes your mind with time. it changes your body inside out. It kills you by making you more desperate & of course a truth that nobody can deny its harmful for your body (heart, brain, liver and etc...). All that is a fact. All that is a part of the hidden fact.

How does it gives you more than a personality and changes your own? Well, before you drink you are that person who acts normal, a person who doesn't want any troubles, who doesn't act silly, who walks straight, a person who has the full control on his mind, tongue and body, but when you drink, all that suddenly changes in a negative way, see drinking takes these adorable human features. It gives you other features but in a different way. In a negative way! It makes you think of what you don't want to. It makes you say what you try to hide. It makes you so confused. It makes you walk around and feeling that you want to fall down so bad to the ground. it makes you lose all that control and makes you desperate. Do you like that? Do you like to do things while you're drink and regret them all the other day? Do you want to do things and forget? Do you want to spend your night killing yourself slowly? I don't think you do.

Let's quit it, it's for your sake. I'm here to help you, I'm here to make you live happier. I'm here to change your life style to a better one. I'm here to tell you that it's not too late, it's never too late, oh, what? You're 100 years old? You're not too old, get over it, you have a life waiting for you out there, you can change it. I believe in you, I don't want to know you're age, cause this is not important and you can change the world. You own the experience, you know you do. It's all related to drinking alcohol, when you drink alcohol it's stops the great mind that you have and thinking from. It kicks out the brilliant ideas from coming out to the wild and building them. You can't say what will you do today or tomorrow, but what if I will tell you that after quitting alcohol you'll be a creative person, you'll be what you want. I believe in you as long as you believe in yourself, I believe that you own what it takes to be what you want.

So, tell me now, do you want to quit alcohol? If so, then please continue reading, I'll teach you how.

You got to find the reason why you drink alcohol for. Is it just for fun or to forget and waste time? Just think about the reason and say does it actually worth your life? You can have a lot of fun in other stuff. You can forget in a lot of other ways than drinking... I'll show you how, follow the steps:

Step 1- I want you to focus in doing this (leaving alcohol).

Step 2- I want you to get along more with your family, friends who don't drink, little guys are better to get along with and spend time & I mean babies. I want you to go straight to anybody who has issues in his life, same kind of issues that you have (if you drink to forget) and let them tell you their problems that will make you feel better. Also, stay away from bars and from friends who drink a lot.

Step 3- Do what you like to do. Do you like your job? Spend extra hours so you can get extra money. Do your hobbies, if you like to draw then do ; if you like write then please do. Think about what you want to be and do it. Read about other cultures. Travel to know information more and more so you can live your life and you have that confident when you're around. Did you want to be a doctor but you couldn't be? Go home and then go online and search about it, learn more about medicines (but never try them on people). Did you want to be a designer who designs clothes or an engineer who designs buildings? You can go home at your free time and create something, I know you can do it because you're smart and the biggest prove is that you're still reading this article and thinking straight to quit alcohol.

Step 4- Get in a groups of people who actually wants to quit alcohol. If there is no such a thing in your hometown, then simply search for them on social networking the Facebook is a great example.

If you have any questions or if you need any help, then please ask me privately on my eMail: akirotimberlake@gmail.com

(All this is from the since of Islam religion, learn more about it at <http://edialogue.org>)

Islam taught me to forget a word called HATE & taught me to write about useful things to help other people & spread all my information to everybody from any other religion & love & treat everybody like I treat my real brother and my real sister and same thing like I treat any other Muslims & all that is just for free.

SAY AT DIALOGUE

Stop thinking & copy ideas but why? As long as it's about Allah & spreading Islam then those positive lines have no limits.

My project is to get more people to visit eDialogue.org and chat with them online to get to know more about Islam & etc, how to do that? It was a huge challenge, but finally I broke through & made it the gold.

The whole project is on Twitter, I search for a few topics (bad habits) on Twitter every single day & I pick one & write an Article about it, such as I searched for the first time on Twitter for (alcohol) & I read a lot of tweets about it, many people were taking it in a positive way & far more away from the truth. The truth that alcohol is harmful product, so I write an Article about it & in the end of any Article I would always write: "that was from the knowledge of Islam, learn more about Islam a <http://eDialogue.org>", after I write that Article I share it on <http://sayatdialogue.blogspot.com> I get back again on Twitter and search for alcohol again and then I tweet the link to everybody who tweeted about alcohol & when people read my article & find out that I'm right, they'll hear about Islam, they'll like Islam a bit, they'll know that Islam is a religion that teach people & a religion that has no hatred & stands for no lies.

Note: in case you have no clue about eDialogue, then I'd love to tell you a bit more about them: they're a huge organization at Saudi Arabia, they work online to answer people's questions about Islam & invite them to be Muslims & so far they got 2,500 people to be Muslims.

ISLAMIC VISION, OIL

Islamic Vision, Oil

What is the Islamic Vision & what does it have to do with oil? Oil is an expensive material, it brings money, money brings a better life and a better life brings happiness, but wait a second. Is money the true happiness? No, it's not. That's why it's blended with the Islamic Vision. Take a few minutes reading this article, I'm sure you'll like it.

Islam sees what is beyond what the human beings can see. Islam is about respect, love, mercy, safety & being satisfied.

Once a wise man said: "If you want to know about Islam, then read about it, maybe read the Holy Qur'an and it's true, verified definition & explanation, but don't look at the actions of some Muslims, or those people who use Islam as a cover & say- That is Islam." - Someone who is very wise!

Islam is more than a religion. It's the guidance that leads to good or the better.

Islam is about making the world under the commands of God (Allah). Submitting & worshiping Him & only Him. No idols between God (Allah) & His creations. That is the basic rule of Islam.

And God's (Allah's) commands are meant to make people happy, organized and satisfied with their lives. How could that become true?

Well, it's by making new rules, new definitions of words.

It's about making a new meaning of life. It's by making too many projects inside a country, it's by giving out too many new jobs with high salary, where the criminals decide to leave crime and head out to find a job, that job would be a respectful & easy to find, with a great salary. It's about raising the salary of the guy who takes out the trash out of your house & cleans the streets, so he can work proudly and live respectable. So He can buy the latest iPhone, take his daughter for a walk and not worrying about getting more than a job or how to make his daughter happy, take his family on trips and classy places, so he won't live in the shame of a late rent. When his salary goes low- this makes him not-respectable in the eyes of other people. People will laugh at him: "yo, look at this guy who takes out the trash. He didn't finish school & look what he grabs in his dirty hand."

But if his salary goes high, he will work harder and be satisfied. Nobody will laugh at the person who takes the trash out of the people's houses and cleans the streets. If he has a high salary & if people will laugh at him, then he wouldn't mind, because he works for a high salary.

Let us be honest. We need those guys around, without them, then who would clean the streets and who would take the trash out of our houses? I'm sure that our children won't do so & I'm sure that we don't want to do that. Simply- we need the trash man.

How can we make projects?

Well, we need to make the current jobs professional. We need to make the taxi driver more able to do things. He needs to study how to be a classy driver. The methods of driving, knowing all the roads of his town, how to make it in time & not making the costumer waiting & etc... That is an example.

We need to get organized, so we need to make an organization of organize. This shall takes over too many jobs, providing people different mission & each person takes a part of this mission and each mission has it's own studies.

So, it's not about the studies that you had at high school, or collage. Of course, they're the basics, but we need to be professional, we need to complement each other. Making too many projects, means giving out too many jobs, means making too many people to work, means lesser crimes, means too many good work & that leads to money (for the sake of the country).

How many of the criminals around the world that are willing to get a respectful, legal job? All of them are willing to do that, surely.

Well, what about the prisoners...? we need to teach them what is going around the world. We need to make them our friends. The last thing we want for prisoners is to make them feel less than us. They're mentally damaged and if we don't help it now, we'll lose them. Each prisoner shall get a job inside the prison, he should study this job, do it in prison under the watch of his trainers. If he does good, then he should be trusted. He should be getting money for being honest, spending time to study and of course- for making good. If he doesn't respond, then we need to find a method to make him respond. After all- every single prisoner is a human. He has emotions, also, he feels, just like us, but he just hasn't got a lucky chance in life. However, we need to respect him for the sake of this nation.

It's (Islam) about making too many jobs, it's about making too many good people. It's about the turn point. When the poor/weak people have much respect.

In Islam, all people are equal, no matter what is the color of skin... white, black, or yellow, they're all the same. Islam doesn't care if this person is the leader of a nation or a simple member in this nation. Islam says: who makes bad/sins, gets punished for his bad/sins.

See, Islam thinks that there must be a turn point in life, when the poor becomes rich and when the rich becomes poor. This is Islam, it's about the change on balance. You work fine, good, you help people, you work with conscience, you work hard to get more money for? You get better and richer, maybe not in money, but in respect and fame. Fame doesn't include singers, actors, only! It includes people with visions, it includes honest people. People who lead the nations.

Islam taught me that, so what did Christianity, atheism, or Hinduism teach you?

Islam goes beyond the definition of "religion" in a positive way, by being Muslims means submitting to Allah (God) and by submitting to Him, you're getting a priceless gift "Paradise" and this paradise you cannot cheat. Allah is the one true God. You would ask me and say: Every single religion says: "we submit to the one true God, but how am I supposed to know which is real?"

Well, we invite you to have a look at Islam, there are too many miracles in the Holy Qur'an "the words of Allah (God)." We invite you to have a look at these miracles and keep in mind:
A- The holy Qur'an is written before 1400 years and it hasn't been manipulated/changed in anyhow.
B- Islam is the fastest growing religion. In USA , only, there are over than 20,000 people who convert to Islam, yearly!

So, visit our website and please have a few minutes asking us anything about Islam. If you have no questions, then let us tell you more about it. Visit: <http://eDialogue.org> ~ & let us have a private, live chat with you, presented by- love, respect, patience & involved in logic, reason & evidence. We convey the message and we don't play any purser on you to join Islam. After all, it's your life and it's your choice.

MAGNETIC GRILL

MAGMATIC GRILL

These are the two words that we can never get bored from hearing them. You won, that is Y, O & U - W, O & N. Just two simple words, that we all love to hear & they are enough to put a smile on your face (at least) or maybe change your life, right after (if you were a famous singer, dancer, boxer, or a football player). Now, these are facts, but what if you'll not hear them at all? What if there is no "You Won" sentence, anywhere you go? Maybe there is instead, other words that are totally different from the first ones, maybe the opposite? Such as: You Lose- that is Y, O & U - L, O, S & E. What would you do, now? Smile, or simply- cry? Now, the normal... emotional people will cry or at least be sad, specially women! It can even be harder than that. It can grow to be more complicated, maybe a psychological disturb!

Hmmm... Wait a second. What if you aren't a person with gifts like the beautiful voice gift, that the singer has, or an open mind, no limited visions for dancing moves, or a genius brain (like Albert Einstein), or a great body that knocks people down with boxing? Well, in your mind, you're thinking that there will be no wins for you & surely, there shall be no consideration, then, or at least, not like famous people!

What about this, logic says:" you can win, even if you weren't a singer, a dancer or a person with any kind of gifts that those famous people have."
Yes, that is true. You've read/heard it right & there is no mistake in it.
You can win gardens of fruits, castles, houses that you can never imagine, you can win the most beautiful women ever, you can win seas of water and seas of drinks, you can win every single kind of an infinite food & the most important thing is that you can win the value of immortality. I'm simply talking about Heaven, or didn't you notice? Shall I continue?
Those people who go to Heaven shall feel no pain after, they shall never be bored, they shall never be sick and never be sad. They'll eat, sleep, do whatever they like to do infinitely.

Now, hold your horses buddy, we ain't done yet.

Let us say that you don't believe in God & Heavens. Well, what if your believes are wrong? What if there is a God? Would you take the chance of visiting hell & resting in its depths? No, no, no, buddy! You need to be careful about what you're going through.

Islam is a combat, this combat has an end & this combat is actually, between: This Life VS. Other Life.
So, Islam is the religion that organizes you to live this life & at the same time it tests you over the time. However, these people who believe and obey Allah (God) shall rest in Heaven forever. These people shall win what the most famous Non-Muslims would ever win in this life. The most important of this all is that YOU can win everything if you follow the Islamic path.

Let us start this, by:

"Islam is the key to Heaven. Learn about it & make a real research about it" (from a verified, Islamic source).

How can you be sure that Islam is a true religion?
Well, there are over than a 1000 verses in The Holy Qur'an that speak about science. Over than 80% of that science/knowledge has been approved as 100% true, only at the last few centuries & logic says that the rest (20%) shall be approved ,sooner or later, as 100% true, also! Not to mention- there are too many hidden miracles in the Holy Qur'an, the book that was written 1400 years ago and there was no changing in it in anyway, these miracles also prove that God is real & describe the Heavens & Hell.

You can actually check it by yourself, just get an electronic copy of The Holy Qur'an and maybe a couple of books of its explanation & see for yourself, but wait... how much that will take time from you? Too much, we all suppose. That is why we've made eDialogue Center. To help you ,guys, to discover Islam, to clear misconceptions about it & of course to convey the message of Islam.

We offer a free live-chatting service. All you need to do is to grab a computer and visit our website: <http://eDialogue.org> & we shall tell you all what you need about Islam & we'll prove that God is real and Islam is the true religion.

Please keep in mind:

- We don't convert people or force them to do so. We only convey the message of Islam.
- Islam is the most growing religion, ever! There are over than 20,000 people in America (only) convert to Islam, yearly!
- We have logical proves on every word we say & we include logic, reason & scientific evidence.
- Who seeks for guidance, gets satisfied.

NY, USA

Dear Isaac,

I miss you so much my dear, lovely imaginary-friend. It has been almost 6 months without seeing you. I'm in pain in every single day without you! I just can't believe how you left without saying bye. What happened to you? You used to be the best. I thought that we're one pice with no parts around. I miss you my friend, I really do. So many times I told you to leave the SSA, but you never did, your mother died because of that company, this company is cursed. Not to mention- the whole blame is on your ex-girlfriend. Ellie, yes, Ellie. She's the one who made you falling on so many troubles. For God's sake, she's been cheating on you. She stole your heart while you're blind & drove you out of your mind & I bet she made you feel like your dreaming. She's not the best thing you had in your life, Isaac.

I've made two projects this year, the first one is about Islam & its called Renaissance Dialogue & the second one is for English-teaching, its called Red Pal. I've wrote 6 books so far & made a Music album, the music album has 16 tracks, the album is called Mentally III. I've spent a whole year on making this music album & spent like 4 years off my life writing those 6 books! I'm not famous yet, but one day I shall... I've made a lot of improvements on myself, I regenerates myself in the circle of life & I'm still looking forward.

Well, I'm officially 16 years old now. I'm still at high-school, I'm one year far from college. To say the fact, I'm not studying a lot, but my marks are usually 70-80 from 100%. I'm smart actually & I only study at the exam day- so, I do no homework.

Isaac, please, tell me- are you alive? Are you OK or did Ellie do something for you? Isaac, please replay this message. It's my message number 37. I just want to make sure if you're alive or not. Our friendship can't end that way, not that easy.

See you later,

Akiro Skullfield

Open Letter

- ◆ This open letter is written especially for you, to help you see the truth. (Needs complement).

Last time I wrote an open letter, was like never - Oh, yeah - I never did. So starting this doesn't need a subject above. Let's skip this & go right to dessert.

TRUE RELIGION

Life is very hard to live if you don't know how to live it, how to control it, how to solve this and how to make that right, in addition to so many other things. But what if you can get to know how to live your life and control everything without thinking for a second:

"Is this wrong?" because all what I'm going to say to you is like a solution for everything. It's one solution suitable for all. Also it is not a fake or a very well-known solution.

You know, typing this actually needs feelings and requests a lot of mind-energy. It needs so many thoughts collected and organized in a way to make you think about what you are going to say and rethink again about "Is it true or not?" This is too much serious but my hands are shaking very much while typing this open letter and I'm very afraid to type a wrong/ not meant thought.

Now I want to say: this whole letter is about GOD (Allah) and Islam (latest not-manipulated religion) as Allah promised that Islam will never be manipulated till the end of time.

ISLAM TEACHES YOU HOW TO LIVE, HOW TO DEAL WITH YOUR PROBLEMS AND HOW TO LIVE HAPPILY.

Islam is based on the belief in Allah as the one and only God, Mohammed as the last messenger of Allah to us all and Holy Qur'an as the one and only true book that has the same exact words of Allah to us. It was sent from Allah to the messenger Mohammed. It didn't get manipulated and will never be. Islam welcomes you all to be Muslims. No matter where you're from or what is your religion or even if you didn't have a religion, Islam welcomes you no matter whatever you did...Islam welcomes you at any time of your life as long as you're still alive then it's not late. It's never too late as long as you breath... But after your heart stopped beating you can't take back the time and you can't change the fact. Allah does exists, you can't see Him with your eyes. Nobody can but you can feel His presence in the depths of your heart.

Islam makes life comes all together to you; it makes you feel you are doing the right thing, makes you forgive, makes you move on from your place but stay connected with your relatives and friends, makes you defend yourself not by a sword or a gun but by your FAITH. People who believe in God (Allah) Who is the one and the only God with a total devotion inside their hearts and follow Islam correctly can not be called LIARS, because Islam stands in the way of liars; even if it's a joke, Islam doesn't support them. Islam doesn't want lies, fighting, or anybody to get harmed even if they weren't Muslims.

Islam is the full definition of LOVE , PEACE and JUSTICE. Islam is far away from booming, killing innocent and civilian people, or oppressing children and women. It actually protects children and women and defends their rights. It actually tells you to stay away from killing anything, even if it was a bird, a harmless cat or harmless pets. Oh yes, it lets you to kill lizards because it's not clean; it can get to your food and make it unclean. The same thing is for mouses and little bugs. Thus, Islam gives you full-detailed ideas. It also shows how and why it's a religion that respects children, women, men and more than that, it respects and honors you.

Many others would ask & say for example: "I heard booming in Iraq. The one who made it and blew it was Iraqi-Muslims, while you (Akiro) said Islam is far away from killing anything, anybody, how is that?" I would love to answer this smart-question by saying: These are not of real Muslims. They're 100% psychologically sick. They don't even know what Islam is. They have lost their values as they were raised on hatred. They are just a people who has no point in life. They hate others and hate to see others happy. They're the bad little kids who didn't go to schools and didn't find a job, so they made groups with the same kind of people. Then they got for themselves a good speaker who can actually fool all others to think the same as they do and put him on the position of Leader. These groups started kidnapping people and asking for money from their families so they can collect money for their next operation which is pretty much bigger than the last one (booming for example)... But the fact is that their acts are not of Muslims and they have no clue about the real Islam.

Islam is not a secret, it's crystal clear and here are some of the Muslim-duties which are pretty much simple and beloved:

- 1- Pray 5 times a day.
- 2- Fast one month "Ramadan" a year.
3. Give in charity to the needy.
4. Pilgrimage to Makkah once in lifetime, if possible.

Also, we can add:

- 5- Advice people of what's right & what's wrong.
- 6- Stay away from taboo things.

Some of the taboo (or forbidden) things are:

- 1- Eating bacon and drinking blood.
- 2- Contacting the other gender with no blood relation and no point but fun from this contact without marriage.
- 3- Sleeping with the other gender without marriage.
- 4- Lying and harming people, by a word, or a thing to do.
- 5- Being Gay/ Lesbian & Bisexual.
- 6- Not believing 100% in Allah, not praying and walking on the path of Islam.

Those are the most important things and I'll explain why they are so taboo:

- 1-
Because pigs and blood is an easy way to copy viruses from someone to another and viruses harm people and harm you. That's why they're taboo as it is the case with everything that may harm.
- 2-
Making pointless chats with many people from the other gender are taboo, because if you make a lot of friendships with the other gender and fall in love with them, the devil can fool you to sleep with that person. This will be a taboo and I'll explain why sleeping with other person is wrong.
- 3-
Sleeping with someone without marriage will make one of you pregnant. What will be the feeling of that baby when he gets born? Killing that baby even if he was in his mom's womb is also taboo, because he's a living person and he has the right to get to life. That is why it's wrong and if there will be no baby, then sleeping a lot with different people help making and spreading AIDS... Nobody wants that, so that's why sleeping with the other gender is taboo.
- 4-
It is clear that nobody wants to be a toy in somebody's hand. Nobody wants to get hurt in his feelings. Nobody wants to get harmed. You don't want that for yourself and so do they. So love to others what you love for yourself and stop annoying people and harming them!
- 5-
It is one of Allah's signs that He created males and females to be for each other in a legal relationship (marriage) to get a new generation every time a man and a woman get married so life can go on. If a man loves another man or a woman loves another woman this will not be okay, as it's not formal and it will cause so many bad side-effects on both.
- 6-
If you don't believe 100% then you have lost your way in this life and you're going to be far away from Heaven.

If you're good with people and walk in the path of Islam but you don't believe in Allah then you did nothing in your life to go to Heaven. It's a rule and a warning for you and everybody else. I'm nobody to judge who goes to Heaven and who goes to Hell, but God Himself said in Holy Qur'an (the book that has every single word sent from Allah to us via Mohammed the messenger) that people who don't believe in Him shall burn in Hell.

I spoke in a general way, in this whole letter and the one point I had is to guide you to the light. Excuse me, if I didn't mention everything and if you like to get to know more about Islam, then you need to think of visiting this website which is made especially for your welcomed-questions about Islam:

Open Letter 2 - 2

- ◆ This is the complement of the last open letter, anyway... The one before was long, this one is small and nice.

OPEN LETTER 2 - 2

Last time I wrote an open letter was before four weeks ago, it was long & detailed, but now, I give you a little more shorter open letter and a better one, with a beautiful words, to all the people in World Wide.

See, we all know that Islam is a religion, but why do we take it that way and stop right there? Why won't we say the truth? The truth that Islam is more than a religion, its far more than we imagine, it's a religion, it's a key to haven, it's a medicine, it's a one solution for more than one situation.

That is the deal, that is the Islam & no matter how much I try to disciple it, there will something missing. It's not about booming, it's not about killing, it's about losing what you love, it's about bringing it back to life, it's about having it all in one, it's love and peace, it's about how to be a man, it's about how to respect & how to treat people & how to deal with your problems.

The one true God (Allah) made this religion and sent for us the knowledge & everything about Islam via prophet called Mohammed & Gabriel is the angel who was the messenger between Allah and Mohammed & in the end, all what Allah said to Mohammed is written in a book called Holy Qur'an.

invite you to come & learn more about Islam at <http://edialogue.org> & I promise that you'd love Islam & you'd love it & you won't be able to wait to be a Muslim.
